

BILL QUIA TIMET

Intro:

1. You cannot say, "Judge, you are a low down shiftless skunk.", but you can say, "I believe or I think...."
 2. Comment on every gesture or obnoxious action of the judge.
- I. A bill invoking the aid of equity "because he fears," that is, because the complainant apprehends an injury to his interests. It is the litigant's impressions of the actions of the court.
- A. Words to use -
 1. I believe...
 2. I fear...
 3. You have led me to believe...
 4. I saw...I heard....therefore, your actions have caused me to believe...
 5. You seemed to be angry....
 6. You seem to be prejudice against me...
 - B. Do not draw conclusions.
 - C. This is when the pro se is treated differently than the lawyer.
 - D. Unless struck, it is still on the record, but file several even when the judge denies.
 - E. A brief in support may be attached to the bill quia timet.
- II. Most judges give the appearance of ignoring the true bill because they don't know what to do with it.
